CrimeLord17: Hey there, you up for a little adventure?

IYELLALOT: Hey, what's up? Sure, what do you have in mind?

CrimeLord17: I've got a plan that could score us big time. Ever thought about making some quick cash?

IYELLALOT: I'm listening... What do you have in mind?

CrimeLord17: How about we hit up United Robot Workers at 86 STANTHORPE DRIVE, KANAHOOKA, NSW 2530 tonight? There's a big score waiting for us there.

IYELLALOT: Hold up, you're talking about a robbery?

CrimeLord17: Yeah, but hear me out. It's a simple in-and-out job. The place is easy to access, and I've got it all planned out.

IYELLALOT: I don't know, man. I'm not really into that kind of stuff.

CrimeLord17: Come on, think about the payoff. We could walk away with a ton of cash.

IYELLALOT: What about security? And what if things go south?

CrimeLord17: Don't worry about security. I've scoped out the place, and trust me, it's a piece of cake. And as for things going south, I've got us covered.

IYELLALOT: How so?

CrimeLord17: Let's just say I've got a little insurance policy. I'll bring my SIG Sauer just in case things get hairy.

IYELLALOT: I don't know, man. This sounds risky.

CrimeLord17: Look, I wouldn't be asking if I didn't think we could pull it off. But if you're not up for it, I understand.

IYELLALOT: Okay, fine. I'm in. But let's make sure we've got everything planned down to the last detail.

CrimeLord17: That's the spirit! Meet me at 7 ROSEWOOD DRIVE, MEDOWIE, NSW 2318 tonight at 10 PM, and we'll go over the plan one more time.

IYELLALOT: Alright, sounds good. Let's do this.
