IYELLALOT: Hey there, you up for a little adventure?

Anonymustard: Hey, what's up? Sure, what do you have in mind?

IYELLALOT: I've got a plan that could score us big time. Ever thought about making some quick cash?

Anonymustard: I'm listening... What do you have in mind?

IYELLALOT: How about we hit up Nation Building Authority at 29-31 NEIL STREET, MERRYLANDS, NSW 2160 tonight? There's a big score waiting for us there.

Anonymustard: Hold up, you're talking about a robbery?

IYELLALOT: Yeah, but hear me out. It's a simple in-and-out job. The place is easy to access, and I've got it all planned out.

Anonymustard: I don't know, man. I'm not really into that kind of stuff.

IYELLALOT: Come on, think about the payoff. We could walk away with a ton of cash.

Anonymustard: What about security? And what if things go south?

IYELLALOT: Don't worry about security. I've scoped out the place, and trust me, it's a piece of cake. And as for things going south, I've got us covered.

Anonymustard: How so?

IYELLALOT: Let's just say I've got a little insurance policy. I'll bring my Beretta just in case things get hairy.

Anonymustard: I don't know, man. This sounds risky.

IYELLALOT: Look, I wouldn't be asking if I didn't think we could pull it off. But if you're not up for it, I understand.

Anonymustard: Okay, fine. I'm in. But let's make sure we've got everything planned down to the last detail.

IYELLALOT: That's the spirit! Meet me at 701 OLYMPIC HIGHWAY, MARINNA, NSW 2663 tonight at 10 PM, and we'll go over the plan one more time.

Anonymustard: Alright, sounds good. Let's do this.
